Preparing for Baptism

GUIDELINES FOR BAPTISM

As you are seeking the baptism of your child in the Roman Catholic Church, the following guidelines are presented to help you embark upon this journey of faith with Christ and his Church.

1. The Sanctifying Role of the Church (Code of Canon Law, c. 842, 849; Catechism of the Catholic Church 1213, 1263, 1265, 1267-1270)

Through Baptism, God enables us to participate in his life in Jesus Christ and makes us his children. It is through this sacrament that we receive the Holy Spirit and become members of the People of God, of the Body of Christ, which is the Church. Baptism becomes our commitment to grow in this new life and to strive to acquire spiritual maturity. By baptism, God purifies us from sin. Baptism is the sacrament of faith which has the Risen Christ as its source, and it is the offer of salvation for all people. Intimately linked to Confirmation and to Eucharist, Baptism is, with these two sacraments, Christian Initiation. The child is baptized in the faith of their parents, godparents and of the Church.

2. Basic Guidelines and Information for Infant (to include young children) Baptism (Code of Canon Law, cc. 867-868; Catechism of the Catholic Church 1251)

Parents are responsible for bringing their child to the Sacrament of Baptism as soon after birth as possible. Except in case of necessity, the church is the usual place of baptism.

In order that a child be baptized, it is necessary that the parents consent, or at least one of them, or someone legally standing in their place, and that there is reasonable hope that the child will be brought up in the Catholic Faith.

3. Baptismal Preparation in your Parish (Code of Canon Law, c. 851; Catechism of the Catholic Church 843)

In order to respect your request for the baptism of your child, you are invited to follow closely the stages of preparation offered below:

- Contact the parish office and express your desire to have your child baptized.
- Introduce yourself to the parish priest if you do not already know him personally.
Open yourself to the invitation to actively join the faith community of your parish. If you are not registered parishioners, please consider becoming involved in the prayer and celebration of the Sunday Eucharistic community.

While baptismal preparation varies from parish to parish, you will be invited to participate in some manner of faith formation prior to the baptism of your child. This may take the form of a meeting(s) with the pastor, pastoral assistant, or participation in a baptismal preparation session for parents. It is extremely important to take your faith-life seriously because, before God, you have taken on an awesome responsibility for the salvation of another—your own child! Your commitment and openness to baptismal preparation will help develop the faith-life of your child as they mature.

4. Other Information (Catechism of the Catholic Church 857)

Are you living in a parish other than the one in which you wish to have your child baptized?

You are required to take your Baptismal Preparation in the parish in which you reside and then receive a testimonial letter from your Parish Priest to have your child baptized in another parish. This requirement respects the reality that pastors normally have sacramental jurisdiction only over their own parishioners. Therefore, when one seeks a sacrament outside of one's parish, the proper pastor's permission is necessary. Furthermore, the invitation to connect with one's own proper parish first is founded on the hope that the faith-life of the family and of the one(s) to be baptized will be lived in community and not in isolation.

5. Marital Status

Your marital status will be clarified during the baptismal preparation process. Baptism is not denied if the parents are unmarried or not married in the Roman Catholic Church. However, there may be reason to postpone Baptism if parents are not practicing the Faith, or have no intention of living a Catholic life in harmony with the Gospel. If your status is not in harmony with the Roman Catholic understanding of sacramental marriage, please inquire as to how we may help you enter into proper sacramental marriage. All of the above information applies to Baptism of an infant or young child only. If you have a child to be baptized who has reached catechetical age/the age of reason (Grade 2 or 7 years), the child must be enrolled in the Faith Formation program and have at least two consecutive years of instruction prior to receiving the Sacrament of Baptism and First Holy Communion.

Those children already baptized in other Christian communities will be prepared to make a profession of faith into the Catholic Church and will receive the sacraments of Eucharist and Confirmation in the rite of Reception into Full Communion with the Catholic Church after two years of preparation.

An ancient tradition in the Church is that the individual who is to be baptized have Godparent or Sponsor. This is a major decision. Choosing a Godparent or sponsor is a spiritual matter, and the choice should be based upon spiritual criteria. It is the duty of Christian parents to pass on the most precious gift of all, the gift of faith, to "bring the child up in the practice of the faith, (and to) see that the divine life which God gives them is kept safe from the poison of sin, to grow always stronger in their heart" (Rite of Baptism for children).

Continued.....

The Godparent serves three important functions:

1. The child being baptized is welcomed into the Church community. The Godparent represents the Church community, the family of God.
2. The Godparent is to be a model of the committed Catholic Christian. Thus, the role of godparent is not a one day, ceremonial role during the rite of Baptism. Throughout the child's life, the Godparent should offer an enriching spiritual relationship-guiding, advising, and nurturing the child in his/her faith development.
3. The Godparent acts as a loving support to the parents/guardians who are the primary religious educators of their child.

Who may be a Godparent?

There may be one or two Godparents. When there are two Godparents, one is to be male and the other female.

- A Godparent must be a fully initiated baptized Catholic, which means he/she has received the sacrament of Eucharist and Confirmation.
- Has completed their sixteenth (16th) birthday
- Registered in a Catholic parish
- Actively practicing their Catholic faith-weekly Mass attendance and reception of the sacraments
- Living an upright life (not cohabitating or married outside the Catholic Church)
- Has not formally left the Catholic Church and joined another faith community
- Is not the child's parent /guardian or grandparent
- If Godparents are a married couple, they must be married in the Roman Catholic Church and actively practicing their Catholic Faith

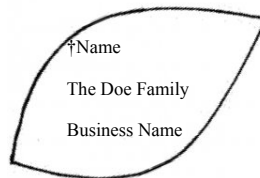

Godparents who are not registered at Sacred Heart Catholic Parish must provide a letter of good standing from their pastor along with certificate of Baptism Preparation. Both forms must be turned in to the parish office prior to scheduling a date for baptism. The Baptismal Preparation Class for Parents and Godparents is held on the 3rd Tuesday of the month at 7:00pm. Please call the office to register for baptism & to sign up for the preparation class. Official Birth Certificate is needed at the time of registration for baptism. Baptisms are held on the 4th Saturday of the month after the 6:00pm Mass.
